THE mother of Melbourne's most dangerous teenager has told how she is fighting her own battles with crime and drugs. Lauren Carpenter, 31, has been jailed for six years and nine months over the shooting and grievous bodily harm of Melbourne teenager Dylan Pittman. Her son Tyler Carpenter, 20, was involved in the murders of six people in the past two months and now faces the death penalty. Ms Carpenter, whose parents separated when she was six, told The Age how she had suffered abuse from her stepfather for her entire life. "When I was born, he gave me to my mum for just a few weeks," she said. "I never knew my biological dad. My stepdad was abusive, [and] I never felt like I was wanted. "I started using drugs and alcohol at about 13 or 14. I had an 18-year-old brother who died of a drug overdose." Carpenter had been in and out of jail since she was a teenager. She was jailed for four years in 2011 for three aggravated burglaries and released in 2014, but was caught a few weeks later with suspected cannabis. She ended up back in jail again. In November 2014, her mother died of cancer and she came home to live with her boyfriend. "I was really, really, really into drugs," Carpenter said. "I started using prescription painkillers, then went to ecstasy, then heroin. "I was using about five times a week. "I was addicted to Xanax, Ecstasy, heroin. I was drinking every night. "If I had to pick a

It's an actual PlayStation 2 ISO. You don't want to copy the files to your PC. A number of people have done that and it just causes a lot of problems, if you want to use this and make your own emulator, just get the PS2 ISO, put it on a USB stick, and then just launch the PS2 ISO as normal. You want to open up XNAD3.exe in another directory and run that as well. As far as updating BIOS, you don't really need that. When you launch the PS2 ISO, you should be presented with a screen that lets you choose what to do from there.
